

IMPORTANT RETIREMENT INFORMATION

It is important that all retirement plan holders are aware that they are required to have their employees fill out new beneficiary papers at the beginning of every year. This is in case of the event of death or divorce from a spouse or any other changes. This is not something that your plan administrator does, nor are they required to remind you to do this.